linea

Una linea continua con direzioni ambivalenti, un punto in movimento senza alcun limite o confine di composizione. L'orizzonte inizia dove finisce la brillantezza del vetro.

MICHELE LOSITO

A continuous line with ambivalent directions, a moving point without any limit or boundary of composition. The horizon begins where the brilliance of the glass ends.
